FOUNDATION STONE LAID

ST. ELIZABETH'S CHURCH BEGUN WITH CEREMONIES IN WHICH
CLERGY AND LAITY UNITE.

With all the impressive ceremonial of the Episcopal church the corner stone of the new St. Elizabeth's church was laid yesterday afternoon in the presence of a large gathering. Shortly before four o'clock a procession formed in the yard of the present St. Elizabeth's house and it moved down King street to the corner of Pua Lane, the site of the new edifice. The St. Andrew's Cadets led the way, then came St. Elizabeth's cadets, the girls of St. Andrew's priory and the surplined choir of St. Andrew's cathedral, St. Peter's and St. Elizabeth's, the clergy being last.

After a processional hymn had been sung by the combined choirs, Rev. W. E. Potwine of St. Elizabeth's read the eighty-fourth psalm and the "Gloria Patri" followed.

The clergy then approached the foundation stone and in a metal basket within it Rev. Mr. Simpson of St. Andrew's placed copies of the Bible, the book of Common Prayer, copies of different current papers with photos of a donor of the church, W. A. Proctor, and of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Proctor, in whose memory the edifice is to be erected.

The assemblage sang "Christ is Made the Sure Foundation" and Deaconess Drant spread the first trowel of mortar on the stone. Rev. Mr. Potwine pronounced the stone laid in the following words:

"In the faith of the ever-blessed Trinity, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, and in loving memory of Charlotte Elizabeth Proctor, we place this foundation stone, and begin the erection of a building to be known as St. Elizabeth's House, and a house of worship to be called St. Elizabeth's church. May the fear of God and the love of the brethren ever be taught and practiced here, in accordance with the principles of the church and in conformity with the truths of the everlasting Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ; Amen."

"Our Fathers, God, to Thee" was sung and Rev. Kong Yin Tet, rector of St. Peter's chapel offered a prayer in Chinese. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. John Osborne of St. Clement's and the procession reforming, marched away to the recessional "Fling out the Banner."

GREAT BRITAIN WANTS CHUSANS
The House of Lords have despatched a note to Sir Ernest Satow, British Minister at Peking, requesting him to obtain from the Chinese Government the lease of the Chusan Islands as a naval station for British warships. The general substance of the note is as follows:

The Chusans are at the mouth of the Yangtze; their situation is excellent, and the productions there are abundant. The islands are near Shanghai and Ningpo, and only 50 miles from the Gulf of Pechili, 700 miles from Hong Kong, and 400 miles from the Korean Strait. Not only can they be turned into a coaling station, but can also be utilized as a naval station for the harboring of the greatest warships. They command the upper and lower sections of the Yangtze and in case of emergencies, would be most useful to the British fleet.

In 1840 we occupied the Chusans for several months, and finally abandoned them. At that time our Admiral declared that if Woo-sung should come into our possession, the position of the Chusans would be assured and that even if we could not get Woo-sung, but only the Chusans, they would be enough to protect our commerce in China. Russia has occupied Port Arthur, Germany, Korea, Japan, Formosa, and it is almost still hostile to occupy the Chusans at the right time, it would be a great stake. The right time is just now, when Japan and Russia are engaged in warfare with each other. We can occupy the islands on the ground that they are necessary for the protection of our commerce, and the Chinese Government cannot raise any objection. If the Chusans should fall into the hands of another power it would be greatly to our disadvantage.—Eastern Times.

PRINCE KUHIO AND C. P. LAUKEA

THE REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE ADDRESSING LARGE MEETINGS ON A TOUR OF HAWAII.

HILO, September 16.—While on the island of Hawaii, Delegate Kuhio upon the advice of the republican leaders here, decided to remain after the Territorial convention and make campaign here while the sun shines. After resting up Saturday and Sunday after the convention, in company with John Wislarchie Mahaula and D. Kakaokalani Jr., the Delegate went into Puna, making speeches at Kapoho, Pahoa and Kilauea on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday night found the party at Waiala. Bright and early Thursday morning a start was made for Laupahoehoe and Hamakua, and en route at various places along the way the Hawaiians were gathered to see and hear from the Republican candidate and the other spellbinders.

They held a meeting Saturday night at Waipio, which was largely attended, and then proceeded through Waimea to Kohala. Prince Kuhio will continue his journey through South Kohala, Kona and Kau this week, catching the Mauna Loa next Monday morning at Kailua. Reports received of their progress is encouraging.

HILO, September 16.—There was a fairly representative audience of men, women and children gathered to hear the band concert Thursday night and incidentally to listen to the Democratic oratory as rendered by Curtis P. Laukea, candidate for Congress and local Democratic leaders. Interspersed between music and song the flow of oratory continued both in Hawaiian and English until a late hour.

Dickey vs. Loo Joe, I have, in said Honolulu, on the 12th day of September, A. D. 1904, levied upon, and shall offer and expose for sale and sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, at the Police Station, Kalaikua, Hale, in said Honolulu, at 12 o'clock chart-room is immediately underneath the bridge, and it is only divided from my cabin by a partition. I was standing at the door when the second officer spoke to me from the ladder and he stood aside to let me up at once. The telegraph is one of those that pull forward. I had pulled it, but cannot remember whether I had let go when I heard the next shot. I said something like, 'I wonder what they're in such a cast-iron hurry for,' and while looking at the destroyer, I saw a bright flare, and the next thing heard a report and the sound of something striking the ship. During the Franco-German war and the China-Japan war I have been stopped hosts of times by men-of-war, French and Japanese, and am familiar, therefore, with the procedure. I was not excited and I went to stop the ship at once, as I knew that was my duty. If I had been ignorant of the procedure of being stopped at sea, I might have remained in my cabin and done nothing, but I knew that I had to stop and gave the order at once by the telegraph.

HOW THE RUSSIANS SANK THE HIPSANG

What distance was the torpedo-boat from you at the first shot?—Not more than 300 yards; I was looking down at her just afterwards.

The Court found as follows:

That the steamship Hipsang was sunk by being shelled and torpedoed by a Russian torpedo-boat destroyer Number 7, name unknown, on July 16th, 1904. Position approximately Lat. 38:35:30 N., Long. 120:75:30 E.

That the master was a fully experienced officer and having been in command during the Franco-German war, the China-Japanese war and also during the present war, he was fully cognizant of the ordinary established usages of war as regards belligerent and neutral vessels.

That there was no contraband on board the Hipsang and the only passenger was one Russian merchant and twenty-two Chinese, there was no Japanese on board.

That the master appears to have navigated his vessel in a seamanlike and proper manner and to have acted in a correct manner when challenged by the Russian destroyer, in so much that he stopped, went full speed astern and when the way was off the ship again stopped the engines and further when she was challenged he at once made known his nationality, when the casualty was inevitable the master appears to have done all in his power to save life.

That the officers and crew appeared to have conducted themselves properly and to have carried out their duties to the last moment and to have used their utmost endeavors to save the lives of the passengers, the loss of life being reduced to one passenger.

That the vessel appears to have been sufficiently manned and seaworthy at the time of the loss.

That the Court desires especially to direct the attention of the Board of Trade and the Foreign Office to the fact that the steamship Hipsang was proceeding with due caution between Newchwang and Chefoo on a correct course and that without cause or reason, was sunk without any warning by being torpedoed, and that the loss of life was due to shell fire, prior to the act of torpedoing the vessel, and that these acts were done by a Russian torpedo-boat destroyer name unknown, but numbered 7.
